GOODWIN INDORSES SPARKS

C. C. GOODWIN, editor of the Salt Lake Telegram, and a staunch Republican, comments in the editorial columns of his paper on the nomination of Governor Sparks for the highest executive office in the State of Nevada in very favorable terms. Judge Goodwin is a pioneer and an old time friend of the Sagebrush State, and his endorsement of Governor Sparks is sufficient indication of the prestige, strength and ability possessed by our chief executive. He says: "Governor John Sparks was renominated by acclamation for Governor of Nevada. That is a deserved compliment because Governor Sparks has made a good governor. He has conscientiously performed the duties of his office as God has given him to see his duty, and he ought to bring out all the strength of his party at the polls. He is a good governor, an honest man, and is as genuine an American as walks the earth."

WHEN we contemplate Teddy's open shop policy in the government printing office, his muzzling the letter carriers, and his Chinese cheap labor on the canal, we are constrained to remark that if he calls that giving labor a square deal, God save us from a round cornered one—Hanno Unionist.
